HELLO FROM JEREMY

Dear Friends,

More and more I am being asked how effective our prayers can be in the big issues and terrible situations facing our world today. Tragic things happen all over the world, wholesale cruelty is taking place, things often seem to have got totally out of hand. How can our prayers affect such situations? The first answer to such a question is that our prayers keep the situation tied to God, they prevent him from being pushed out.

A second answer is that most sinful situations arise from wrong thinking, wrong attitudes, and wrong decisions within the spirits and minds of people, so that the struggle is basically spiritual. St Paul reminds us that our wrestling is not against human foes, but against cosmic powers, in which wrong thinking, mistaken ideas and motives, result in evil consequences.

When we pray in such circumstances we are engaged in spiritual warfare and may only use the weapons of God – truth, righteousness, faith, desire for peace, prayer. Sometimes such tragic things happen that we can only groan in dismay and compassion, which the Holy Spirit will turn into intelligible prayer. Prayer on such occasions may help us to see the hidden possibilities in seemingly hopeless situations and reveal the wrong thinking and behaviour which have produced them. Jesus taught us to pray that God's Kingdom should come, and his will be done in every situation. Our prayer may help create the right atmosphere for this to happen, and lead to some inspired initiative of love and indeed can change the world.

Intercession springs out of compassion and love for people, and a faith that the will of God is always completely good, loving, wise and effective, the best thing that could possibly be – done, even in the worst circumstances. In intercession we focus the love of God where the need is great. Our little human love calls to the infinitely greater love of God to come to the aid of those for whom we pray. In prayer the whole of eternity becomes opened up, the whole universe becomes accessible, every person beloved or in need is within reach – death is no barrier, the relationship of love built up in this life may still be maintained. Our prayer links us with God and the person for whom we are praying. Our prayers move with the speed of love, faster even than the speed of light, reinforced by the infinite love of God.

We sometimes wonder if our intercession is needed, for God wants to pour out his love and grace on all people. God may not need our involvement, but those for whom we pray do. Adding another link between them and God.

Intercession can be casual and uncostly. In the space of ten seconds we can mention a dozen names, and think that we have expressed our love and done our duty. We do not have to diagnose the person's need or tell God what to do. We leave God to do what in his love he knows to be needed. One of the shortest prayers was the message which Martha and Mary sent to Jesus, when their brother Lazarus lay at death's door – "Lord, he whom thou lovest is sick". I have found it helpful to hold a name lovingly and trustfully before God, his love is then invoked and magnifies our own human love and deepens our concern.

My love and blessing,

“OPEN THE BOOK” – CHILDRENS’ MINISTRY

On the afternoon of Tuesday 3rd May, four of us from the Quintet Benefice’s “Open the Book” team went into Gresham Village School to present the story of “Jonah the Groaner” with appropriate costumes and props. We were able to involve seven children to help us – two as sailors in the boat with the captain, two to wave a blue cloth in front of the boat to make a rough sea, one as a tree (who fell over very dramatically on cue), one to dangle the worm and the other to hold a signpost and point to where Jonah went. All the other children were able to participate by making a groaning noise at the relevant times. The whale was effectively represented by a brown play tent with two big eyes which was manipulated to “swim” up to Jonah and cover him over, much to the amusement of the children (and staff). The children listened and watched attentively and seemed to enjoy the story. We concluded with a prayer asking God to help us when we have things to do that we find difficult and invited the children to say “Amen” at the end if they wanted to make it their prayer.

We are open to other members of the Quintet parishes to join our storytelling team for the Autumn term. To remind you, the commitment would be for a 1-hour preparation session every 6-8 weeks during term time, held in Beeston, then two short (20 minute) assemblies at Gresham Village School per term. If you are interested in becoming involved or would like further information, then please contact Amanda Wooster at jawooster20@gmail.com.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Confirmation can be an important part of a lifetime journey of faith as a follower of Jesus Christ. We are thinking of running some confirmation classes and so, if anyone is interested, please let Jeremy know.

CORONAVIRUS

To protect each other, and particularly those who are clinically vulnerable, we are asking that everyone who attends Church continues to wear a face covering and, where possible, to maintain social distancing.

Communion will continue to only be given as bread, and the priests will continue the rigorous hygiene protocols that are in place including the wearing of a face covering when distributing the bread.

For those who feel that they would still prefer to join us from home, we will, for the present, continue to live stream West Runton's weekly service.

BEESTON REGIS

Wild Church – What a wonderful afternoon we enjoyed on Sunday 8th May for our second Wild Church at Beeston. The sun shone on us warmly and the North Sea wind blew us about! With National Gardening week just concluding and Mental Health Awareness just beginning, we took ourselves off to do some mindful gardening to boost our emotional and social wellbeing. We planted a wildflower patch in the churchyard to keep the local bees fed all summer. Our Rector, Jeremy, blessed our own little creation and we now pray for a few rainy days so the seeds take root. Local “Barry the Bee” from West Norfolk & Kings Lynn Beekeepers’ Association joined us with his wife, Jan, in going “wild about bees”. We had some hilarious moments making up our own “waggle dance”, mimicking the bees! A Bee Trail round the Church Field gave us plenty of challenges and exercise and was rewarded with late chocolate Easter eggs. Barry’s wife, Jan, helped the children make beeswax candles as mementos to take away. Blossom, the vintage travelling caravan cafe, kept us beautifully fed and watered throughout, thanks to owner Victoria and husband, Steve. It was so lovely to welcome back those who had been at our launch and also greet new families including 3 more children, making 32 of us in total! Thank you to everyone who came and brought us such joy. We meet again at the next Wild Church, on Sunday 12th June at 2.00pm. So, mark it in your diaries, like our Facebook posts and, if you have any questions, contact Amanda Wooster on 07985 291930.
